

CILT Award 2020 – Service Excellence

Organised by The Chartered Institute of Logistics & Transport in Hong Kong (CILTHK)

Extension of Submission Deadline!

In view of the social unrest and uncertainty in the society, transport/logistics operators have been heavily engaging in the daily operations. To allow interested companies/organisations with more time to prepare for their submission, The Chartered Institute of Logistics & Transport in Hong Kong (CILTHK) is pleased to announce the submission deadline of the CILT Award 2020 is now extended to 31 Jan 2020 6:00p.m.

CILTHK is a statutory non-profit making professional body dedicated to promote, encourage and coordinate the study and advancement of the science and arts of transport and logistics. The CILT Award was first introduced in 2004 aiming to recognise and applaud the outstanding achievements of any transport and logistics service providers in Hong Kong. Under the theme 'Service Excellence', the Award is categorised into two streams, namely 'Enterprise Award' and 'SME Award'. This biennial competition is organised for entries from both the logistics and transport sectors and organisations that can demonstrate achievement in either logistics or transport management with an aim to foster excellence in practice. CILT Award is a prestigious recognition of the winner's contributions to the development of Hong Kong's transport and logistics industry.

Don't miss the opportunity to showcase your excellence!

Submission Deadline: Extended to 31st January 2020

Act Now! >>Download the award flyer for details

For enquiries, please feel free to contact the CILTHK Secretariat: Miss Tif Tam at 2866-6336 (tiftam@cilt.org.hk) or Miss Harriet Leung at 3114-8033 (harriettleung@cilt.org.hk).