

BEC ENVIROSERIES CONFERENCE JULY 2020

Business Sustainability in the midst of Disruption, Turbulence and Recovery

8 JULY 2020 (WED) | 9:00A.M. - 5:00P.M. | THE MIRA HONG KONG

Reflecting on the unprecedented disruption the world is facing in recent months, the main objective of this EnviroSeries Conference is to challenge our conventional wisdom and explore innovative, low carbon approaches to recover from the lows of the COVID-19 outbreak. The conference will highlight the tough challenges, extended risks as well as new-found opportunities faced by businesses in such difficult time, and to showcase how corporate leaders are building resilience and adaptability into their business planning and operations for long-term sustainability.

Plenary Sessions:

Plenary 1: Decarbonisation amid economic downturn and plummeting fuel price

Plenary 2: Investing in a resilient built environment

Plenary 3: Developing a Future-Ready Workforce

Plenary 4: How the boardroom and investors can lead the way in low carbon recovery
