The Institute of Purchasing & Supply of Hong Kong (IPSHK) Webinar - HK

Topic: Business Ethics and Corruption Prevention

You are welcome to enrol this Webinar on business ethics and corruption prevention where our guest speaker, Ms Mabel Chu (Senior Community Relations Officer, ICAC) will share with participants the importance of business ethics / corruption prevention and practices to enhance corporate business ethics.

Agenda:

1. Discuss the importance of business ethics
2. Update recent corruption trend drawn on reports in the private sector
3. Introduce a "4-A" Model to facilitate practising business ethics

About the Hong Kong Business Ethics Development Centre of the ICAC

To fortify the business sector's resistance to corruption, the Hong Kong Ethics Development Centre was established under the auspices of the Community Relations Department of the Independent Commission Against Corruption (ICAC) in May 1995. It was rebranded as the Hong Kong Business Ethics Development Centre (HKBEDC) in May 2015 and its main role is to promote business and professional ethics on a long-term basis to sustain a level-playing field in Hong Kong.

Highlights of the webinar:

Speaker:

Ms Mabel Chu, Senior Community Relations Officer, Hong Kong Business Ethics Development Centre, ICAC.

Introduction of Speaker:

Ms CHU has been working in the Community Relations Department of the ICAC for over 20 years. Throughout the years, Ms CHU has accrued experience in liaising with various sectors and giving corruption prevention seminars for personnel from government and private sectors. Ms CHU currently serves in the HKBEDC of the ICAC as Senior Community Relations Officer to promulgate ethics and anti-corruption messages to the business community of Hong Kong.
